invite grade 6-12 teachers to ...

Turkey – Bridge Between East and West

March 27, 2010

CSUSB
5500 University
Pkwy., San Bernardino

8:30 a.m. - 3:45 p.m.

This program is offered to educators
at no cost.

Since Neolithic times, Anatolia, known as Turkey today, has been at the crossroads of Asian and European peoples and events. The exchange of ideas and trade between these continents made this unique region the birthplace of some of the great civilizations of world...civilizations at the heart of the H-SS curriculum at many grade levels.

Open to teachers and teacher candidates of all content areas in grades 6-12, this will be a learning experience to remember. Not only will participants gain understanding of this important part of the world through presentations by scholars, they will enjoy a Turkish cultural experience.

Up to 4 participating high school teachers will receive the opportunity for a 10-day study tour of Turkey in the summer of 2010 as guests of the Turkish Cultural Foundation. All participants will receive the opportunity to bring students to World Affairs Council programs at no cost and a set of standards aligned lessons on Turkish civilizations for their classrooms.
